

OUTDOOR ENTHUSIAST

Kickstart Your Day

Grab breakfast at a of these local spots: Gracious Plenty, Land of a Thousand Hills, Thumbs Up Diner

Head Out for Adventure

On a warm day, what's better than time spent out on the water? Head to Nantahala Outdoor Center where you can rent tubes, rafts, kayaks, canoes and stand up paddleboards. They also rent e-bikes.

Fuel Up

Depending on your hunger level, you may want something big or light. Head to Lucky's Burger and Brew or Lazaro's for a burger or authentic Cuban cuisine. Feeling something light? Check out Sublime Tree or Kale Me Crazy for great smoothie options.

View from Above

Add a bit more adventure to the day and head to the Chattahoochee Nature Center and the Screaming Eagle Zipline and Aerial Adventure.

Time to Wind Down

You've been going all day and you deserve a delicious dinner to wrap up this epic day. Here are a few options to try: Hola Taqueria, Salt Factory and Pub, or Pizzeria Lucca.

DAY 2

Start Off on the Right Foot

Start the day with something sweet or savory at these favorite spots: Fellows Cafe, Douceur de France or The Flying Biscuit

Catch Some Air

Head over to Big Creek Park for a variety of mountain biking trails and difficulty levels. Bring your own bike or rent a bike through Zagster (station set up in the park), Atlanta Cycling or Fresh Bikes, both are located close to Big Creek Park.

Cool Off

Take a leisurely stroll to Vickery Creek Waterfall or grab your walking shoes and wind your way through the trails. Start at Old Mill Park and pick your path.
