From the Librarian,

Thanks to Terry Grossman, Time to Burn app developer, for being crazy enough to dream big with me. And to Christopher "Xtopher" Cilley, Time to Burn app developer AND my amazing burn angel who developed the incredible RSL database and provided amazing technical support to me and all the camp gurus with questions. I couldn't ask for better partners in crime!

A big WOOT! to designer, Paul Sardoch, who luckily agreed to once again magically transform all the music data into what you are holding in your hands right now.

To my Michael... "So, I love you because the entire universe conspired to help me find you." Paulo Coelho, The Alchemist.

I DO NOT CONSENT TO A SEARCH

LAW ENFORCEMENT

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

American Civil Liberties Union of Nevada
www.aclunv.org

HOW TO SPEAK TO LAW ENFORCEMENT:

- Officer, my name is [give your real name].
- Am I free to go?
- If I am not free to go, please explain to me your probable cause for stopping me.
- I politely refuse to give you any further information.
- I do not consent to a search of me or my belongings, tent, vehicle, or camp.

Your best defense against citation or arrest may be politeness.

Nothing requires you to incriminate yourself, and an officer may cite you for revealing any illegal behavior.

If you wish to exercise your right to be silent, say so out loud.

WHEN CAN THE POLICE STOP AND SEARCH ME?

- Police may briefly stop to ask for your identity without probable cause of a crime
- Police may not require you to answer additional questions, detain or search you without either consent or probable cause
- Probable cause means an officer must be able to point to specific facts indicating criminal activity
- An officer may ask your consent to search you or your belongings
- Your refusal to give consent does not constitute probable cause for a search

This is not legal advice. This is information discussing the general state of the law. We urge you to consult a lawyer for legal advice about a particular legal question or issue you may have. If you believe you are coerced into giving consent for a search, or that you are searched without probable cause, you may wish to contact the ACLU of Nevada at www.aclunv.org.
