

NORA RASBY TUCKER (MRS.)

Labor economist
War Labor Board, Washington, D. C.

History

This person sounds good. I read Lee A. last year, and evidence is much higher this year.

Her academic record not tops but she evidently knows what she wants and does that well.

Study of labor movement - cuts in very timely good apt for a grant

NORA RASBY TUCKER

Bibliographer, P-1, U. S. Board on Geographical Names
274 Division Avenue N.E., Washington, D. C.

History

An interesting candidate
Top recommendations from Ray Logan and George Wythe, who says, "one of the best, if not the best, student - the class."

Her style - sloppy (as reported by her professors & shown in application)
Her project is really to get a Ph. D. and her work will be all on secondary sources.

But she is promising enough material to consider seriously
