

Candidate Joseph Bailey PriceSpecial Field ChemistryInstructor of Chemistry, Millsaps College
Jackson, Mississippi

Plan of Work

139 Duncan Ave

The determination of the distribution of the element iodine in the soils of Mississippi, as shown by a chemical analysis of food crops and drinking water from all sections of the state.

Seeking Ph.D. from Louisiana State University. Study to begin summer of 1939, for duration of one year. Will return to present position.

Digest of Application

Born December, 1902, Quitman, Mississippi. Married, one child.

B.S. from Millsaps College, 1926. M.S. from University of Mississippi, 1928.

Science instructor, high schools and junior college of Mississippi, 1926-27, 1928-30, $1400 - 1300. Chemistry instructor, Millsaps College, 1930 -, $1800-$1850-$1600 (depression).

Teaching Fellow at University of Mississippi, 1927-28, $500.

References

Dr. M. L. Smith, President, Millsaps College.
Dr. D. M. Key, Dean, Millsaps College.
Dr. J. M. Sullivan, Professor of Chemistry, Millsaps.
Dr. G. H. Woollett, Prof. of Chemistry, U. of Mississippi
Dr. V. A. Coulter, Prof of Chemistry, U. of Mississippi.

Budget Summary

Total amount needed	$1,500.
From applicant	200.
From Fund	$1,300.

Committee Notes

Granted

Documents submitted

Photograph
Exhibit material
Transcripts
Millsaps College
U. of Mississippi

Plan of work

Digest

Sent to Committee

Documents returned