ADAM WIGFALL GREEN

Professor of English
University of Mississippi

Anthropology

Excellent read at Williams & Mary and Virginia

Good that a person from Virginia now at Univ of Mississippi is interested in the Brazilian method of handling the race question - Maybe this is the treatise we've been wanting on "Brown Brazil" and by such a fellowship we might consolidate the intelligent interest in race relations of a top Southern professor His salary is modest - $1700

What about the language difficulty?
