Dear Mr. Arthur:

Fellowship aid to the amount of $2,000 was granted Mr. T. M. Campbell of Tuskegee by our Board in June. Some time later, however, Mr. Campbell felt that he could not be away this session and resigned the fellowship. I understand that he is planning to apply again next year and if he sees his way clear to go away, he will appreciate a contribution of $300 from the Julius Rosenwald Fund.

Mrs. Favrot and I enjoyed a delightful trip to Europe and I am feeling quite invigorated for my work this year.

Yours cordially,

Leo M. Favrot

Dear Mr. Arthur:

I thank you for your letter and the kind offer providing me with a grant to study this summer. I find it will be to my advantage to wait until later on to do the studying, therefore I would like very much to have this offer held over, so that I might avail myself of the opportunity to go for six weeks around next January.

Please let me know if this is convenient.

Again thanking you, I am

Yours very truly,

INSTRUCTIONS.

A. The telegraph must be used sparingly. In a message from one official or employee to another official or employee titles not be used; and in a great many cases the names of the parties in both address and signature may be limited to single words. Messages sent from or to the Department at Washington should not be paid for by the persons sending or receiving the same, except in cases where payment is demanded as a condition to the transmission or delivery of the messages, and the agent, operator, or messenger should be directed to have the same charged in the company's monthly bill at Washington.

B. The rates for the transmission of official messages (except those for the Weather Bureau) over the principal telegraph lines in the United States, including those of the Western Union Telegraph Company, are fixed annually by the Postmaster General, and all payments in excess of those rates will be at the expense of the person making the payments.

C. Payment for Government messages sent over telegraph lines owned or operated by bond-aided railroad companies is forbidden by law.

D. Write numbers out when fewer words result than there are figures in the number, except in cablegrams, when figures should be used instead of the corresponding words.

E. Do not abbreviate ordinal numbers, such as 16th (three words), 3d (two words), 22d (three words); but write them sixteenth, third, and twenty-second.

F. Telegrams, or any part thereof, relating to leave of absence are not official. Telegrams relating to salary or expense checks are only official when the funds are actually necessary to carry out official instructions; and such messages must be clearly explained.

G. Telegrams between the several Departments of the Government and their officers and agents, in their transmission over the lines of any telegraph company to which has been given the right of way, timber, or station lands from the public domain shall have priority over all other business, at such rates as the Postmaster General shall annually fix. And no part of any appropriation for the telegraph Departments of the Government shall be paid to any company which neglects or refuses to transmit such telegrams in accordance with the provisions of this section.—Rev. Stat., sec. 5266.

SCHOLARSHIP

May 9, 1931

My dear Mr. Campbell: The Fellowship Award Committee of the Julius Rosenwald Fund in a session recently decided that, while the kind of fellowship grant requested by you is entirely out of the scope of the Fund's plan, they would offer you a grant to cover this summer's work. In only a few cases have they given summer scholarships.

The amount of your request, however, is more than twice as much as it has been found necessary to have for summer school work, even with persons living much farther south and with larger families than you have. The Committee, therefore, has asked me to offer you the sum of $300. If you care to use this money, kindly advise as to the time and place of payment. The Committee did state, however, that they would be willing to consider another application from you next summer, but without in any way committing themselves to a grant at that time.

Very truly yours,

GRA:VH
