

1939

Virginia Union University

Sociology

If this man were 15 years younger I might be for him
But he is now established and all a part would do would be to give him another very useful experience. It wouldn't stally affect his development. and there is no evidence that he is the type of supreme individual that would justify an investment simply to make him a better

B