REPORT:

Re: Ollie Jewel Sims.

Gentlemen:-

Miss Ollie Jewel Sims was a student for three years in the Hubbard Hospital Training School for Nurses, was graduated with highest honors in a class of thirteen, and served one year as Supervisor on the General Medical Wards of Hubbard Hospital during my Administration as Superintendent of the Training School.

I considered her an exceptional student, an efficient nurse, and a very good supervisor. She is fully deserving of any favors you might extend to her, and if granted a scholarship, I believe she will be an asset to the Nursing Profession. May I add, that I also consider her a young woman of high moral standards and Christian character.

Sincerely yours, Mrs. R. T. Smith,
(Mrs) R.T. Smith.
