Dear Mr. Haygood:

I am sure that the Fine Arts Jury, Messers. Mechau, Mangravite and Maldarelli will be glad to be of service to you. You would have to come on to New York City to be with them, of course, when they met.

As to music, the thing has been done much less formally. I have consulted whomever was available. I suggest that Leo Sowerby in Chicago could do a very good job for you about your candidates in musical composition.

All the best.

Sincerely yours,

Henry Allen Moe
