Dear Oronzio: Here comes the call to duty once more!
I am counting on you and Gino and Frank to serve as our board of experts again if you will be so kind.

I hope that we can have our meeting in New York on either March 30 or April 6, or the Saturday following either date, though it seems to me Gino likes to go to the country on the weekends. Will you and Gino consult with each other and decide on what date would be most convenient for you? Frank can come for either week.
I should appreciate your wiring me collect your decision.

We have fifteen candidates in art this year, twice as many as last, so it should be an interesting meeting.

I am anxious to see you and Tillie again, and look forward with anticipation to our annual get-together.

My love to you both,

VANDI V. HAYGOOD

Dear Gino: I am counting on the three musketeers to say thumbs up or thumbs down on our art candidates this year again. I do hope that it will be possible for you to serve on the jury.

I would like very much to have our meeting in New York on either March 30 or April 6-- or the Saturday following either date--though I remember that you like to go to the country on weekends. Will you and Oronzio consult with each other and decide what date would be most convenient for you? If those I mentioned are not possible, would you suggest an alternative? I should appreciate your wiring me collect your decision so that I can notify the candidates the date to submit their exhibits.

We have fifteen candidates in art this year, twice as many as last, so it should be an interesting meeting.

I am looking forward to seeing you and Frances again.

Best regards,

VANDI V. HAYGOOD
