

Candidate William Peters Robinson

Special Field

Assistant Instructor in Political Science
Howard University

Political Science

Plan of Work

To study in detail the institutional character of the Supreme Court in its effect upon the history of the American Negro - primarily in the sphere of political and civic rights, secondarily in the sphere of his social and economic status.

Seeks Ph.D. at Columbia University. Has been admitted. Two years.

Wishes to secure position as Professor of Political Science.

Digest of Application

Born 1909. Single.

B. S. and M. A. Howard University, 1932 and 1935. Graduate work at Harvard, 1935.

Assistant Instructor, Howard University, 1935-38, $1000-$800.

Publication: Political Aspects of the Writings of Diego de Covarrubias y Leyva.

Scholarship from Howard University, 1934-35.

References

- Dr. Charles H. Wesley, Dean, Graduate School, Howard University
- Mr. E. E. Dorsey, Acting Head, Dept. Political Science, Howard University
- Pres. Mordecai Johnson, Howard University

Budget Summary

Total amount needed	$ 1175
From applicant	300
From Fund	$ 875

Committee Notes

Granted

Documents submitted

- Photograph
- Exhibit material
- Transcripts
- Howard University

Plan of work

Digest accomplished

Sent to Committee

Documents returned

