Hi! -- Gino wired Mat April 6 would be an agreeable date for the meeting, so we'll make arrangements to convene that morning. I'll get into New York earlier that week so we can probably get together beforehand.
I expect you'll have about the same time between trains as last year, and we hope you can come out to the office for lunch -- or if you don't have time for that maybe I can meet you down town. Did I ask you if you'd like a cash advance? If so just let me know. I haven't done anything about hotel reservations anywhere.

As ever,

Vandi
