

1948

Name: Liston Pope

White

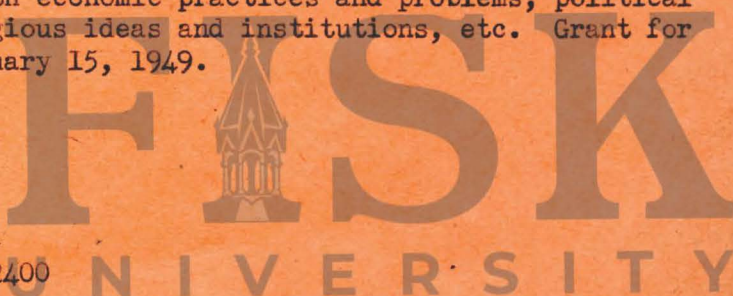

Sociology

Position: Gilbert L. Stark Professor of Social Ethics
Yale University

College: Duke University, A.B., 1929; B.D., 1932
Yale University, Ph.D., 1940

Plan of Work: first-hand observation and study, in the Union of South Africa, Southern Rhodesia, Northern Rhodesia, and Nyasaland, of the interplay of racial patterns with economic practices and problems, political form, ideological systems, religious ideas and institutions, etc. Grant for a 6-month period beginning February 15, 1949.

Action of Committee: Granted $2400

LISTON POPE

Gilbert L. Stark Professor of Social Ethics
Yale University

Sociology

A splendid man and splendid project.

He is already mature, but this study will give him stature

I'm not sure there is any likelihood of his going back South
But I'm for him anyway

Name Liston Pope Field: Sociology

Gilbert L. Stark Professor of Social Ethics, Yale University
409 Prospect Street, New Haven 11, Connecticut

Plan of Work First-hand observation and study, in the Union of South Africa, Southern Rhodesia, Northern Rhodesia, and Nyasaland, of the interplay of racial patterns with economic practices and problems, political form, ideological systems, religious ideas and institutions, etc.

Requests grant for one year beginning February 15, 1949.

Personal Data Born Thomasville, North Carolina, September 1909
Married, three dependents

Age: 38
Draft Status:

Undergraduate Work Duke University, A.B., 1929

Graduate Work Duke University, B.D., 1932
Yale University, Ph.D., 1940

Experience Associate Minister, Wesley Memorial Church, High Point, N.C., 1932-35, $1200-$2400; minister, Congregational Church, New Haven, Conn., 1935-38, $1500-$1900; Yale Univ., lecturer, 1938-39; assistant professor, 1939-44; associate professor, 1944-47, Gilbert L. Stark Professor of Social Ethics, 1947-.

Research Field research on interrelation of religious and economic institutions in Gaston County, N.C., won John Addison Porter Prize of $500 at Yale Univ. in 1940. Continuing research on race and labor problems with special reference (thus far) to the U.S., on the sociology of religion, and on agencies and ~~Accomplishments~~ strategies of social action.

Scholarships Various tuition scholarships in college, seminary and graduate school.

Accomplishments Editor, Social Action, 1944-; Chairman, Industrial Relations Div., Fed. Council of Churches, 1944-46; Chairman, International Religion and Labor Foundation, 1944-45; instructor in summer sessions of Union Theological Sem., 1946, '47; lecturer, Presbyterian Institute of Industrial Relations, N.Y., 1944-; arbitrator in disputes between the men's clothing industry and the Amalgamated Clothing Workers in Conn., 1944-; member, Program Committee and Pamphlet Committee Edw. W. Hazen Foundation, 1945-; adviser, The Woman's Press, The Protestant Voice; trustee, Phelps-Stokes Fund, 1946-; member, Dept. of Race Relations, Red. Council of Churches; has written two books and numerous articles.

References
L. A. Weigle, Yale Divinity School
Emory Ross, New York City
Julius Lewin, United Nations, Lake Success, N.Y.
Channing Tobias, Phelps-Stokes Fund

Budget Summary

Total Amount Needed	$4000
From Applicants others	2000
From Fund	$2000

Sent to Committee

F I S K
UNIVERSITY

AMOUNT GRANTED 4000