My dear Mr. Haygood:

Upon my return to the office after an extended absence, I am just in receipt of your letter of May 1st, expressing regrets that I could not attend the second meeting of the Fellowship Committee. I am glad you understand why I could not be present; nevertheless this doesn't prevent me from regretting I could not attend, especially since this was your last official connection with the Committee.

While I am on the subject, may I state that it has been a pleasure to work with you. I think you have done a difficult job exceedingly well. I am sure it must be a satisfaction to you that you have been able to make this contribution. May I take this opportunity to wish you well in whatever your subsequent endeavors may be.

With kindest personal regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

Chas. H. Thompson
