

Candidate Sidney James Phillips ✓
Teacher of Soils
Tuskegee Institute

Special Field
Soil Science

Plan of Work

To study soil conservation and the fundamental changes caused by erosion on virgin soil types in five principal soil conservation regions, so as to obtain data to acquaint a larger number of Negro farmers with many of the complex phenomena of erosion and its control throughout the South.

Seeks Ph.D. at University of Wisconsin. Has been admitted. One year to Fifteen Months.

Wants position as Regional Soil Conservationist, U. S. Soil Conservation Service.

Digest of Application

Born May, 1901, Pike Road, Alabama, Married.

B. S. Tuskegee Institute, 1933; M. S. University of Wisconsin, 1937.

Teacher, Vocational Ed. Dept., LaFayette, Alabama, 1922-27, $1500; County Agent, Agricultural Extension Service, Pine Bluff, Arkansas, 1927-30, $2200; Movable School Agent, Agricultural Extension Service, Little Rock, Arkansas, 1930-31, $2800; Teacher, Tuskegee Institute, 1931-33, $2100.

Fellowship - General Education Board, Sept. 1935 to Feb. 1937.

References

- Prof. E. Truog, Dept. of Soils, U. of Wisconsin
- L. G. Brackeen, State Soils Surveyor, Montgomery, Ala.
- E. H. Shinn, Senior Agriculturist, Extension Service, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture
- E. J. Condon, Director, Public Relations, Sears, Roebuck & Co. Chicago
- F. D. Patterson, President, Tuskegee Institute

Budget Summary

	12 mos.	$3012
Total amount needed	15 mos.	3765
From applicant		---
	12 mos.	$3012
From Fund	15 mos.	3765

Committee Notes

*Recommend high but
More unfavorable
WV*

Granted

*and doesn't depend at all.
He worked on Federal proj.*

Documents submitted

- Photograph X
- Exhibit material
- Transcripts X
- Tuskegee
- University of Wisconsin

Plan of work X

Digest

complete

Sent to Committee FEB 16 1938

Documents returned

