

Candidate Lucy Clay Barrow ✓ Special Field
 Head of Department and instructor of Home Economics Home Economics Education
 Philander Smith College, Little Rock, Arkansas

Plan of Work

My project will be to work in the field of administration and organization in rural schools and rural teacher-training work.

Seeks Ph. D. in Home Economics Education at Columbia, working under the supervision of Professor Helen Judy Bond. Has been admitted and can complete work in one year.

Digest of Application

Born June 30, 1891, Williamsburg, Virginia.

B. S. from Hampton Institute in 1929; M. S. from Cornell, 1932.

Was primary instructor in Whittier Training School, Hampton, Virginia, 1914-16; elementary instructor at Tappahannock, Virginia, 1916-18; home economics instructor at York County Training School, Yorktown, Virginia, 1921-27; Professor of Home Economics at Philander Smith College, 1929-1937.

Organized the home economics department at Yorktown, Virginia, and organized and laid the foundation for a four-year curriculum at Philander Smith College.

Held Julius Rosenwald Fund fellowship of $800 for one year of work at Cornell, 1931-32.

Will return to present position

References

Budget Summary

✓ Mr. Lorenzo White, head of record office, Hampton	Total amount needed	$ 1,500
✓ President M. L. Harris, Philander Smith College	From applicant	500
✓ Mr. M. J. Holmes, Board of Education Methodist Church	From Fund	$ 1,000

Committee Notes

Granted

Documents submitted

Photograph X
 Exhibit material
 Transcripts X
 Hampton
 Cornell

Plan of work X

Digest Beal

Sent to Committee

Documents returned

