November 29, 1938

Dear Miss Payne: I am exceedingly sorry that we did not get to see one another during my recent visit in Washington. I doubt that I shall be back in the city before the middle of January. I have now made a permanent entry of your telephone number in my address book and I shall call you and give you a report on the nurse midwifery situation. In the meantime let me extend best wishes for Christmas and the coming New Year.

Very truly yours,

M. O. BOUSFIELD
