

Candidate Richard Henry Richardson Special Field
Conservationist-Forester, U. S. Dept. Agriculture, Soil Conservation
Tuskegee Institute, Alabama

Plan of Work
 I wish to continue my studies in soil conservation including the conservation of small game and wild life and applied work in forestry and erosion control.

Seeks M. S. at Iowa State College. One year

Digest of Application

Born December, 1897, Sparta, Georgia. Married, one child.

A. B. Morehouse College. B. S. Tuskegee Institute. Special work in Soil Erosion, University of Georgia, 1934-35.

Principal and teacher of agriculture, Coosa County Training School, Cottage Grove, Alabama, $1200; teacher of vocational agriculture, Fort Valley N & I School; farm manager, soils and agronomy, Georgia State College, $1500; conservationist-forester, Soil Conservation Service, Tuskegee, Alabama, $1800.

References

Mr. L. J. Leffelman, Soil Conservation Service, Atlanta
 Dr. F. D. Patterson, President, Tuskegee Institute
 Mr. O. C. Medlock, Soil Conservation Service, Auburn, Ala.
 Mr. Thomas N. Roberts, Soil Conservation Service,
 Tuskegee Institute

Budget Summary

Total amount needed	$ 1,845
From applicant	200
From Fund	$ 1,645

Committee Notes

Granted

Documents submitted

Photograph
 Exhibit material
 Transcripts
 Tuskegee Institute

Plan of work

Digest

Sent to Committee

Documents returned

