

Candidate James Harrison Finch Special Field City Planning

Architectural draftsman
1150 Cumberland Road, Atlanta, Georgia
Plan of Work

Six months devoted to research on planning and gathering of data for city plan of Atlanta, to be presented as a thesis. Six months at Cranbrook Academy of Fine Arts for development of thesis and study of southern planning problems.

Seeks master's degree in Architecture and City Planning at Georgia Tech and Cranbrook Academy. Admitted to Georgia School of Technology, and will work under Professor Harold Bush-Brown. Approximately one year.

Digest of Application

Born December 5, 1913, Atlanta, Georgia. Single.

Georgia School of Technology, B. S. in Architecture, 1936; Princeton University, 1937-38.

Lighting designer with Georgia Power Company, $140 month; draftsman with Hantz, Adler, and Shutze, Atlanta.

Received Illuminating Engineering Prize of $500; Howard Crosby Butler Prize, (Princeton) Princeton Prize ($1,000); Gold Medal of French Diplome Society, AIA award, and 3 medals, Beaux Arts Institute of Design.

References

Professor Harold Bush-Brown, Georgia Institute of Tech.
Professor Sherley W. Morgan, Princeton
Professor Jean Labatut, Princeton
W. Pope Barney, Philadelphia
John Judson Rowland, Kinston, N. C.

Budget Summary

Total amount needed	$1,800
From applicant	-
From Fund	$1,800

Committee Notes

Granted

Out

Documents submitted

Photograph
Exhibit material
Transcripts Georgia Tech
Princeton

Plan of work

Digest

Sent to Committee 2/16 2

Documents returned

