

JULIUS ROSENWALD FUND
NEGRO FELLOWS - 1938

FRED W. ALSUP, (age 24) head of the Science Department at Morristown College, Tennessee; appointed for zoological studies at the University of Pennsylvania. Born August 5, 1914, Nashville, Tennessee. Married, one child. Education: Fisk University, A. B., 1934, M. A., 1936. Marine Biological Laboratory, Woods Hole, Massachusetts, Summer of 1937. Member of Sigma Gamma Pi. Held scholarships at Fisk University 1931-36. Graduate Assistant at Fisk, 1934-36; head of the Science Department at Morristown College, Morristown, Tennessee, 1936-.

FANNIN S. BELCHER, Jr. (29) assistant professor of English and director of dramatics, West Virginia State College: appointed for studies in drama at Yale University. Born September 13, 1908, Savannah, Georgia. Education: Lincoln University, Pennsylvania, A. B., 1928; University of Pennsylvania, M. A., 1930; Howard University, Summer of 1929. Instructor in English, Lincoln University, 1928-30; assistant professor of English and director of dramatics, West Virginia State College, 1930-. Has written three full-length plays: "The Gypsy Charm," "Deal a Hand," "Roll Your Own," and numerous one act plays.

ARNA W. BONTEMPS, (35) principal of Shiloh Academy, Chicago: appointed for creative work in writing, specifically to gather background material for books in the children's field, and to complete the research and finish writing a historical novel. Born October 13, 1902, Alexandria, Louisiana. Married, four children. Education: Pacific Union College, B. A., 1923; Columbia University and New York University, 1925-30; University of Chicago, 1936-. Teacher at Harlem Academy, New York, 1924-31; at Oakwood Junior College, Huntsville, Alabama, 1931-34; principal of Shiloh Academy, Chicago, 1935-. Publications: Black Thunder (Macmillan, 1936); God Sends Sunday (Harcourt Brace, 1931); Sad-Faced Boy (Houghton Mifflin, 1937); You Can't Pet a Possum (Morrow, 1934); Popo and Fifina (Macmillan, 1932). Several of his poems have won prizes and have appeared in various anthologies. Two plays have been produced at the Gilpin Theatre.

BRAILSFORD R. BRAZEAL, (35) Dean of Men, Morehouse College: appointed for studies in economics at Columbia University, specifically the origin and development of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters. Born March 8, 1903, Dublin, Georgia. Married. Education: Morehouse College, A. B., 1927; Columbia University, A. M., 1928; Institute of Race Relations, Swarthmore College, Summer of 1933; Columbia University four summer sessions. Rosenwald Fund fellowship, appointed through Social Science Research Council, 1932. Teacher of Economics, Morehouse College, 1928- , and also Dean of Men since 1934. Editor of Morehouse Alumnus and contributor to Journal of Religious Education and Quarterly Review of Higher Education Among Negroes.

HORACE CAYTON, (34) research assistant in sociology, University of Chicago: appointed for the continuation of studies in sociology and statistics at University of Chicago. (Renewal). Born November 12, 1903, Seattle, Washington. Married. Education: University of Washington, B. B. Ad., 1931; University of Chicago, 1931-34, 1937-38. Member of Zeta Phi, Alpha Kappa Delta. Assistant to principal, Tuskegee Institute, Alabama; special assistant, U. S. Department of the Interior; instructor at Fisk University; research assistant, University of Chicago for several years. Assisted Dr. Harold Gosnell with "The Negro Politician in Chicago"; collaborated with Dr. George Mitchell in study, "The Negro in Trade Unions"; Negro and White Workers in Unions will be published by University of North Carolina Press in the autumn; has contributed to the Nation and reviewed books for American Journal of Sociology.

SCHIEFFELIN CLAYTOR, (30) assistant professor of mathematics, West Virginia State College: appointed for research in theoretical mathematics. (Renewal). Born 1908, Virginia. Education: Howard University, B. S., 1929, M. S., 1930; University of Pennsylvania, Ph.D., 1933; University of Michigan, 1936-. Publications: (thesis) I. Topological Immersion of Peanian Continua in a Spherical Surface, Annals of Mathematics, October, 1934; II. Peanian Continua not Imbeddable in a Spherical Surface, Annals of Mathematics, Series II, 1937; III. Locally Planar Continua, read before American Mathematical Association, April, 1938, (to be published).

ANNA MARGARET COOKE, (30) director of dramatics, Spelman College: appointed for studies in the drama and related arts at the Yale School of Fine Arts. Born October 7, 1907, Washington, D. C. Education: Oberlin College, A. B., 1928; Yale University, 1936-37; American Academy of Dramatic Art, 1930-31; Columbia University, 1930-31; Pavley-Oukrainsky School of Ballet, 1931. Held Rosenwald Fund fellowship, 1930-31; General Education Board scholarship, 1936-37. Teacher and director of dramatics, Spelman College, 1929- ; director of Atlanta University Summer Theatre, 1934-.

JOHN AUBREY DAVIS, (26) assistant professor of political science, Lincoln University, Pennsylvania: appointed for study of the Negro in politics in New York, at Columbia University. Born May 10, 1912, Washington, D. C. Married. Education: Williams College, A. B., 1933; University of Wisconsin, A. M., 1934. Held scholarships at Williams College for four years of undergraduate study; the Clark Prize scholarship for graduate study, and a fellowship from the University of Wisconsin. Member of Phi Beta Kappa. Research assistant, Labor Advisory Board, N. R. A., 1934-35; Bureau of Labor Statistics, U. S. Department of Labor, 1935-36; instructor at Howard University, 1935-36; assistant professor at Lincoln University, Pennsylvania, 1936-.

WILLIAM H. DEAN, (28) instructor in economics, Atlanta University: appointed for study of the economic factors in regional migration and the growth of cities, at Harvard University. (Renewal). Born July 6, 1910, Lynchburg, Virginia. Married, one child. Education: Bowdoin College, A. B., Summa cum Laude, 1930; Harvard University, M. A., 1932, one semester, 1936, and 1937-38. University Scholar, Harvard University, 1930-31; Henry Lee Memorial Fellow, Harvard, 1931-32. (This is the highest fellowship award in Economics at Harvard, and its incumbent is also secretary of the Economics Seminar.) Edward Austin Fellow, Harvard, 1932-33; General Education Board fellowship, one semester 1936. Member of Phi Beta Kappa. Instructor in Economics, Atlanta University.

E. HORACE FITCHETT, (36) dean of Claflin College, South Carolina: appointed for a study of the traditions of the free Negro in Charleston, South Carolina, under the auspices of the University of Chicago. Born November 7, 1901, Cheriton, Virginia. Married, one child. Education: Howard University, A. B., 1926, M. A., 1927; University of Chicago, 1930-31, and 8 months in 1935; Yale University Summer Seminar in Race and Culture Contacts, 1934. Fellowship at Howard University, 1926-27; Commission on Interracial Cooperation, 1930-31; General Education Board, 1934-35; Board of Education of the M. E. Church, Claflin College, and Yale University, Summer of 1934. Professor of social sciences at Claflin College, 1927-, and Dean of the College, 1936-; teacher of social sciences at A and M College of South Carolina during Summer Sessions 1928-37. Has written various articles for Opportunity, Journal of Negro Life, Southern Workman, Crisis, and Oracle.

JOHN H. FRANKLIN, (23) instructor in history, Fisk University: appointed for study of the free Negro in the ante bellum South under the auspices of Harvard University. (Renewal). Born January 2, 1915, Rentiesville, Oklahoma. Education: Fisk University, A. B., 1935; Harvard University, A. M., 1936, 1937-38. Freshman and sophomore scholarships at Fisk University; National Alpha Phi Alpha scholarship, 1934-35. Member of Sigma Upsilon Pi. Research assistant, Commission on Minority Groups, and instructor in history at Fisk University.

VIOLA B. GOIN, (26) appointed for studies in bacteriology at the University of Michigan. Born August 6, 1912, New Haven, Connecticut. Education: Oberlin College, 1929-31; University of Paris, 1931-32; Yale University Medical Center, 1932-34; University of Michigan, B. S., 1936, M. S., 1937. Member Phi Kappa Phi. Substitute instructor in biology, Virginia State College, February-June, 1936.

SHIRLEY GRAHAM, (33) supervisor of the Negro Unit of the Chicago Federal Theatre: appointed for studies in the theatre and music at the Yale School of Fine Arts. Born November 11, 1904, Indianapolis, Indiana. Widowed, 2 children. Education: Oberlin College, A. B., 1934, A. M., 1935; Vassar Theatre Summer School, 1937; Columbia University, Summers of 1929 and 1936; University of Paris, one term, 1930, certificate in French; Howard School of Music, 1927-28; private instruction in piano, pipe organ, voice, harmony, orchestration. Graduate scholarship, Oberlin College, 1934;

Rockefeller Foundation scholarship to Federal Theatre at Vassar College, 1937. Music Department of Morgan College, 1928-31; taught music, history, and dramatics at Washington Conservatory of Music and Expression, Summer of 1934; fine arts and music history at Tennessee A and I College, 1935-36; supervisor, Negro Unit of Federal Theatre, Chicago, 1936-. Composed libretto and music for "Tom-Tom" which was produced in Cleveland in 1932; "Mississippi Rainbow Song," and "I Promise." Has contributed to Opportunity, Crisis, Etude Music Magazine, Arts Quarterly.

LEILA S. GREEN, (23). Appointed for studies in organic chemistry at Radcliffe College. Born October 19, 1915, Canton Ohio. Education: Howard University, B. S. Summa cum Laude, 1936, 1936-38. University fellowship, 1936-38. Member Kappa Mu, Beta Kappa Chi.

DEWEY R. JONES, (37). Appointed to do sociological studies in relation to the Hull House community, Chicago. Born September 2, 1900, Asheville, North Carolina. Married, two children. Education: University of Michigan, A. B., 1922; Pulitzer School of Journalism, Columbia University, M. S., 1932. Rosenwald Fund fellowship 1931-32. Reporter, city editor, editorial writer and managing editor of Chicago Defender, 1924-35; associate adviser, U. S. Department of the Interior, 1935-38.

LEWIS W. JONES, (28) research assistant in sociology, Fisk University: appointed for studies in sociology and anthropology at Columbia University. Born March 13, 1910, Cuero, Texas. Education: Prairie View College, 1925-28; Fisk University, A. B., 1931, 1934-35, University of Chicago, 1931-32. Social Science Research Council fellowship, 1931-32. Research assistant, Department of Social Science, Fisk University, 1932-35; supervisor of rural studies, TVA, four months in 1934; research assistant in Julius Rosenwald Fund rural school studies, 1937; research assistant Fisk University, 1938-.

MELVIN D. KENNEDY, (32) teacher, Atlanta University Laboratory School: appointed for studies in history of the French slavery question, 1800-1850, under the auspices of the University of Chicago. Born November 28, 1905, Worcester, Massachusetts. Married. Education: Clark University, A. B., 1929, M. A., 1930; University of Chicago, 1935-36, and summers 1934-37. Jonas G. Clark scholarship, 1926-27, and Scholar in the Department of History at Clark University, 1929-30. Teacher at Atlanta University Laboratory High School, 1930-.

CLINTON E. KNOX, (30) instructor in history, Morgan College: appointed for studies in French history, specifically of the French foreign policies in the Ottoman Empire, 1878-1902. (Renewal). Born May 5, 1905, New Bedford, Massachusetts. Married. Education: Williams College, A. B., 1930; Brown University, A. M., 1931; Harvard University, Summer 1930, and 1935-36, 1937-38. Held undergraduate fellowships at Williams College and graduate fellowship at Brown University; General Education Board fellowship, 1935-36, and Baird Cutting fellowship for foreign study from Harvard, 1938-39, supplementary to the Rosenwald Fund grant. Instructor in history, Morgan College, Baltimore, 1931-. Publications: "The Possibilities of Compromise in the Senate Committee of Thirteen," Journal of Negro History, October, 1933.

E. A. LANIER, (37) assistant professor of English, Fisk University: appointed for studies in American literature, specifically "The Idea of the Southern Gentleman in American Fiction," at Harvard University. Born December 19, 1900, Alcorn, Mississippi. Married, one child. Education: Talladega College, A. B., 1923; Dartmouth College, A. B., 1924; Harvard University, A. M., 1926, 1931-33, 1937-38. General Education Board fellowships 1931-33, 1937-38. Professor of English at Atlanta University, 1926-29; A and T College, Greensboro, North Carolina, 1929-30; assistant professor of English, Fisk University, 1930-.

JAMES R. LAWSON, (23) teacher of physics and mathematics, St. Augustine's College: appointed for investigation in infra-red spectroscopy at the University of Michigan. (Renewal). Born January 15, 1915, Louisville, Kentucky. Education: Fisk University, B. S., 1935; University of Michigan, M. S., 1936, Summer session, 1936, and 1937-38. Undergraduate scholarship, Fisk University. Laboratory assistant, Fisk University, and research assistant, University of Michigan. Teacher of physics and mathematics, St. Augustine's College, Raleigh, North Carolina.

BIRTILL A. LLOYD, (33) professor of physics, Philander Smith College: appointed for studies in physical chemistry, specifically a study of the reaction between sulphur vapor and sulphur dioxide under the influence of the electric discharge, at the University of Illinois. Born June 9, 1905, Jamaica, B. W. I. Married. Education: University of Illinois, B. S., 1930; University of Toronto, M. A., 1934; University of Illinois, 1930-31. University of Illinois scholarship, 1930-31. Member of Phi Lambda Upsilon, Sigma Xi. Publication: "Equilibria in Liquid Systems Containing Furfural," Canadian Journal of Research, Section B., Volume 15, March, 1937. Professor of chemistry and physics, State College, Kentucky, 1931-32; professor of mathematics and physics, Philander Smith College, 1935-.

JAMES E. LU VALLE, (26) Appointed for study of the determination of theoretical and experimental methods of the resonance energies in conjugated unsaturated organic molecules with special reference to those containing oxygen, at California Institute of Technology. Born November 10, 1912, San Antonio, Texas. Education: University of California at Los Angeles, B. A., 1936, M. A., 1937; California Institute of Technology, 1937-. Regents scholarship for three years at University of California at Los Angeles; teaching assistant, U. C. L. A., 1936-37; graduate assistant, California Institute of Technology. Member of Phi Beta Kappa, Sigma Xi, Pi Mu Epsilon, Phi Lambda Upsilon, captain of the track team, U. C. L. A., 1935, member of 1936 Olympic team, president of graduate students, U. C. L. A. 1937.

BOOKER T. MCGRAW, (39) teacher of economics, Lincoln University: appointed for continuation of studies in economics, specifically for the completion of the study of the monetary experience of France, 1926 to the present, at Harvard University. (Renewal). Born August 24, 1898, Brooks County, Georgia. Married. Education: Atlanta University, A. B., 1923; University of Michigan, M. A., 1924, M. B. A., 1926; Harvard University, A. M., 1933, 1937-38. General Education Board fellowships, 1931-32, 1932-33. Professor of economics, Bishop College, Texas; registrar and teacher of economics, Lincoln University, Missouri.

GUICHARD B. PARRIS, (35). Appointed for a biographical study of the abbé Henri Grégoire (1750-1831) as one of the distinguished representatives of the humanitarian tradition in France, particularly as that tradition is related to the anti-slavery movement of the day, under the auspices of Columbia University. Born March 3, 1903, Guadeloupe, French West Indies. Married, three children. Education: Amherst College, A. B., 1927; Columbia University, A. M. 1932, and 1933-35, 1936-37. Held undergraduate scholarship at Amherst College three and one-half years. Member of Phi Beta Kappa. Instructor in French, Livingstone College, Salisbury, North Carolina, 1930-31; assistant professor of French, Lincoln University, Missouri, 1932-33; instructor, Atlanta University, 1935-36. Publications: Bibliography of 18th century literary criticism in Modern Language Notes. Three French Reading Texts (Atlanta University French Series, 1936, in collaboration with Dr. Will Mercer Cook). Article, "French Texts for Negro Schools," Romanic Review, March, 1935. Occasional contributions to the Crisis and Opportunity.

REED E. PEGGRAM, (24). Appointed for the continuance of a study on "The Notion of Decadence in Nineteenth Century Literature," under the auspices of Harvard University. Born July 26, 1914, Boston, Massachusetts. Education: Harvard University, A. B., Magna cum Laude, 1935, A. M. 1936, 1937-38; Columbia University, 1936-37. Received honorable mention for the Susan Anthony Potter prize in comparative literature at Harvard for first draft of dissertation, "Studies in Nineteenth Century Decadence," 1936. Undergraduate and graduate scholarships at Harvard and at Columbia. Awarded John Harvard fellowship (without stipend) for foreign travel, 1938-39.

IRA DeA. REID, (38) professor of sociology, Atlanta University: appointed to pursue further studies in race and population problems at the London School of Economics and to do field research on Negro immigrant adjustment in the Panama Canal Zone. Born July 2, 1900, Clifton Forge, Virginia. Married. Education: Morehouse College, A. B., 1922; University of Chicago, Summer, 1923; University of Pittsburgh, A. M., 1925; Columbia University, Ph. D., 1938. Urban League fellowship, 1924-25; General Education Board scholarship, 1934. Teacher at Texas College, 1922-23; Douglas High School, Huntington, West Virginia. 1923-24; industrial and research secretary, New York Urban League, 1925-28; director of research, National Urban League, 1928-34; professor of sociology, Atlanta University, 1934-. Publications: Negro Membership in American Labor Unions (Alexander Press, 1930); The Negro's Relation to Work and Law Observance (Report of the National Commission on Law Observance and Enforcement, Vol. VI, Part II. Government Printing Office, 1931); The Problem of Child Dependency Among Negroes (Report of the White House Conference on Child Health and Protection, Vol. IV, C-1. Century Company, 1933); The Negro in New Jersey, a survey for the New Jersey Interracial Committee, five volumes (Department of Institutions and Agencies of New Jersey, 1932); The Urban Negro Worker in the United States: 1925-36. Vol. I. (Government Printing Office, 1938). Articles and reviews on social and economic problems have appeared in various journals.

RUTH M. SMITH (21). Appointed for study in anatomy and endocrinology concentrating on the problems of the reproductive cycle in woman, at Western Reserve University. Born January 25, 1917, Washington, D. C. Education: Mount Holyoke College, A. B., 1937; Howard University, 1937-38. Held fellowships from Mount Holyoke during four years of undergraduate study, and tuition scholarship from Howard University.

FRANK M. SNOWDEN, Jr., (27) instructor in the classics, Spelman College: appointed for studies in classical languages, literature and archaeology, under the auspices of Harvard University and the American School of Classical Studies, Athens. Born July 17, 1911, York County, Virginia. Married. Education: Harvard University, A. B., 1932, and A. M., 1933. Harvard University Summer session, 1935 and 1936. Held Price-Greenleaf scholarship at Harvard, 1928-29, 1929-30, the Parmenter scholarship 1930-31, and the Bowditch scholarship, 1931-32. Instructor at Virginia State College, 1933-36; instructor at Spelman College, 1936-.

HOWARD W. SWANSON, (26). Appointed for studies and creative work in musical composition in Paris, France, with Nadia Boulanger. Born May 26, 1912, Atlanta, Georgia. Education: Cleveland Institute of Music, 1929-37, B. Mus. Has written compositions which have been performed by the students at the Cleveland Institute of Music and a piece for orchestra which was performed by the Cleveland Symphony Orchestra at the Great Lakes Exposition. Held scholarship at Cleveland Institute of Music for one year.

JOSEPH T. TAYLOR, (25) teaching fellow at Fisk University: appointed for study of tendencies toward anti-social behavior in select cultural settings of Negroes, at the University of Illinois. Born February 11, 1913, Rolling Fork, Mississippi. Education: Wiley College, 1932-35; University of Illinois, A. B., 1936, A. M., 1937; Fisk University, 1937-38, teaching fellow. Fellowships at University of Illinois. Member of Alpha Kappa Delta.

MYRON B. TOWNS, (27) professor of chemistry, North Carolina Agricultural and Technical College: appointed to conduct research on over-voltage and electrode discharge phenomena, at the University of Michigan. Born October 4, 1910, Atlanta, Georgia. Education: Atlanta University, A. B., 1930; University of Michigan, A. M., 1933, 1935-36, and Summers of 1934, 1935, 1936. Alpha Phi Alpha fellowship, 1935-36; member Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Lambda Upsilon. Teacher at Booker T. Washington High School, Atlanta, Georgia, 1930-35; professor of chemistry at Agricultural and Technical College, Greensboro, N. C., 1936-.

HARRY J. WALKER, (33) instructor in sociology, Fisk University: appointed for sociological study of Durham, North Carolina, in collaboration with Lewis C. Copeland, under auspices of University of Chicago. (Renewal). Born June 7, 1905, Muncy, Pennsylvania. Married. Education: Bucknell University, 1924-25; Oberlin College, A. B., 1928; Fisk University, 1931-32, M. A., 1937; University of Chicago, 1937-38. Graduate fellowship at Fisk University, 1931-32. Instructor in social sciences, Leland College, Baker, Louisiana; research assistant, department of social science, Fisk University. Field worker and research assistant in housing studies, study of tobacco workers, study of Negro college and professional graduates, under auspices of Fisk University.

CHARLES E. WEIR, (27) assistant in chemistry at Howard University: appointed for research in nuclear chemistry and quantum mechanics at California Institute of Technology. (Renewal). Born September 29, 1911, Washington, D. C. Married, one child. Education: University of Chicago, B. S., 1932; Howard University, M. S., 1934; California Institute of Technology, 1937-38. Held three half-year tuition scholarships at University of Chicago, two fellowships at Howard.

STANTON L. WORMLEY, (29) professor of German, Virginia State College: appointed for studies in comparative literature at Cornell University, specifically a study of "Heine's Impact on Victorian England." Born February 7, 1909, Washington D. C. Married, one child. Education: Howard University, A. B., 1930, A. M. 1931; University of Hamburg, Diplom der Universität; Cornell University, 1936-37. Undergraduate scholarships in German and graduate fellowship in English at Howard; American-German Exchange fellowship, Institute of International Education, Hamburg; General Education Board fellowship, 1936-37. Translator and book reviewer. Hamburg-Amerika Post, 1931-32. Assistant professor at Virginia State College, 1932-.

JULIUS ROSENWALD FUND
WHITE FELLOWS - 1938

CHARLES ROBERTS ANDERSON, (age 36) assistant professor of English, Duke University: appointed for creative writing in the cultural history of the South, specifically a study of the cultural history of Charleston, South Carolina, from 1830 to 1886, based chiefly on the Paul Hamilton Hayne Collection of approximately 5,000 unpublished manuscripts. Born October 17, 1902, Macon, Georgia. Married. Education: University of Georgia, A. B., Summa cum Laude, 1924, A. M., Summa cum Laude, 1928; Mercer University, School of Law, Macon, Georgia, 1924-26; Columbia University, Ph. D., 1938. Member Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Kappa Phi, Sigma Upsilon. Instructor in English, 1927-28 and 1929-30, at University of Georgia, Athens; assistant professor of English at Duke University, 1930-; managing editor of American Literature (Duke University Press), 1931-33. Publications: Journal of a Cruise in the Frigate United States, 1842-44, with notes on Herman Melville (Duke University Press, 1937); Melville in the South Seas (accepted for publication by Harvard University Press). Articles: "A Reply to Herman Melville's White-Jacket," American Literature, May, 1935; Contemporary American Opinions of Typee and Omoo, American Literature, March, 1937; Melville's English Debut, American Literature, May, 1938; The Romance of Scholarship: Tracking Melville in the South Seas (accepted by the Colophon for publication in Spring of 1938).

JOHN DAVID BLACK, (30) instructor in zoology, University of Arkansas: appointed for studies in zoology specifically directed toward the conservation of southern fish, at University of Michigan. Born July 2, 1908, Winslow, Arkansas. Married, one child. Education: University of Kansas, B. A., 1935; Indiana University, M. A., 1937. Undergraduate museum fellowship at University of Kansas, four years. Member Phi Beta Kappa, Sigma Xi. Graduate assistant, Indiana University, 1935-37; research assistant with Indiana Game and Fish Commission, summers of 1935, 1936, 1937; tutor in embryology, Indiana University, 1936-37; instructor in zoology, University of Arkansas, 1937-. Publications: Several studies on birds and mammals (ecology, distribution, and taxonomy). "Mammals of Kansas;" "A Winter Robin Roost in Arkansas;" "Birds of Winslow, Arkansas Region;" "A New Woodchuck from Kansas;" "A New Race of Peromyscus maniculatus from Arkansas;" "Mammals of Northwestern Arkansas."

INA C. BROWN, (42). Appointed for continuation of studies in social anthropology at University of Chicago. (Renewal). Born May 27, 1896, Gatesville, Texas. Education: Southern Methodist University, 1919-21; University of Chicago, A. B., 1936. Publications: Choice of a Career (with Garfield Evans, Cokesbury Press, 1923); Training for World Friendship (Cokesbury Press, 1929); The Story of the American Negro (Friendship Press, 1936).

JOHN TYLER CALDWELL, (26). Appointed for continuation of studies in public administration (especially in the field of taxation) at Princeton University. (Renewal). Born December 19, 1911, Yazoo City, Mississippi. Education: Mississippi State College, B. S., 1932; Duke University, M. A., 1936. Instructor of social science at Holmes Junior College, Goodman, Mississippi; research economist with Resettlement Administration, State College, Mississippi.

LEWIS CAMPBELL COPELAND, (29). Appointed for study of influence of race on the social structure of a southern community at Duke University. (Renewal). Born February 10, 1909, Houston, Texas. Married. Education: Texas Christian University, A. B., 1931; University of Chicago, M. A., 1937. Research assistant under Social Science Research Committee at University of Chicago for several years; assistant director of WPA Population Research Project, under guidance of Dr. Ernest W. Burgess of the University of Chicago; research assistant for National Resources Board.

HARRY W. CULBRETH, (34). Appointed for a study of the present methods of supplying life insurance and of the possibility of meeting the needs of low-income groups through cooperative insurance societies. Although Mr. Culbreth will not be working towards an academic degree, he is availing himself of the advice of Paul Douglas and others. His field studies will be made in the United States and abroad. Born September 14, 1904, Cumberland County, Virginia. Education: Virginia Polytechnic Institute, B. S., 1925. Engineering department of Chester Valley Electric Company, Coatesville, Pennsylvania, 1925-26; district manager of Republic Service Corporation, Mercersburg, Pennsylvania, 1926-37; Credit Union representative for the Farm Credit Administration, 1935-38; engaged in research for Ohio Farm Bureau, February, 1938-.

JAMES HAROLD EASTERBY, (40) professor of history, College of Charleston: appointed for studies in southern history, specifically for the editing of documents relating to the ante bellum rice plantations, under the auspices of University of Chicago. Born June 24, 1898, Charleston, South Carolina. Married, two children. Education: College of Charleston, A. B., 1920; Harvard University, A. M., 1922; three summer quarters at University of Chicago and Harvard University. Kerr Boyce scholarship, College of Charleston; Thayer scholarship, Harvard University; Carnegie fellowship in fine arts, Harvard University, Summer of 1927. Acting professor of history, College of Charleston, 1920-21; professor of history and director of the library, College of Charleston, 1922-; professor of history at University of South Carolina, summer sessions of 1929 and 1930. Publications: History of the St. Andrew's Society of Charleston, South Carolina (1929); A History of the College of Charleston (1935); Rules of South Carolina Society (1937). Articles in Dictionary of American Biography, South Atlantic Quarterly, Proceedings of the South Carolina Historical Association, and various newspapers; reviews in Yale Review, American Historical Review, North Carolina Historical Review, and Journal of Southern History.

PAUL B. FOREMAN, (27) associate professor of sociology, University of Mississippi: appointed for a study of population trends in Mississippi, 1880-1930, at Vanderbilt University. Born June 3, 1911, Baker, Oregon. Education: Reed College, 1929-30; Oregon State College, 1930-32; University of Oregon, B. S., 1933, M. A., 1935; Vanderbilt University, 1935-36; University of Minnesota, Summer of 1937. H. W. Hogue fellowship, Reed College; Washington High School, Portland, senior scholarship for year at Reed College; teaching fellowship in sociology, Vanderbilt University. Member Phi Delta Kappa and Alpha Kappa Delta. Research agent for Oregon State Planning Board, summer of 1936, associate professor of sociology and head of department, University of Mississippi, December, 1936-. Publications: "Administration of Juvenile Male Delinquency Cases in the Courts of Oregon," Journal of Juvenile Research, July, 1935; "A Note on Population Records and Reporting in Welfare Institutions," Social Forces, March, 1938.

MITCHELL FRANKLIN, (36) professor of law, Tulane University: appointed for a study of French influences in American jurisprudence with special reference to Louisiana. Born February 19, 1902, Montreal, Canada. Married. Education: Harvard University, A. B., 1922, LL. B., 1925, S. J. D., 1928. Law adviser, Supreme Judicial Court of Massachusetts, 1925-28; with Chadbourne, Stanchfield and Levy, New York, 1928-30; professor of law, Tulane University, 1930-. Publications: has contributed articles to various legal journals; reporter in one of the broad fields of law at last two meetings of the International Congress of Comparative Law at the Hague.

RUFUS CARROLLTON HARRIS, (41) president of Tulane University: appointed for studies of university developments in Europe. Born January 2, 1897, Monroe, Georgia. Married, three children. Education: Mercer University, A. B., 1917; Yale University, LL. B., 1923, J. D., 1924; Mercer University, LL. D., 1932. Professor of law at Mercer University, 1924-27, dean of law school, 1925-27; dean of law school at Tulane University, 1927-37, president, June, 1937-.

THOMAS A. HART, (33) assistant professor of biology, West Georgia College: appointed for studies in science with special emphasis on the teaching of biology in normal schools and teachers colleges, at University of Chicago. Born August 18, 1905, Buenos Aires, Argentina. Married. Education: Richmond College, 1925-27; College of William and Mary, B. S., 1930. Emory University Medical School, one semester, 1931-32; Emory University, M. A., 1933, M. S., 1937. Member of Sigma Upsilon, Kappa Phi Kappa, Phi Sigma. Assistant professor of biology, West Georgia College, 1933-.

GEORGE D. HUMPHREY, (41) president of Mississippi State College: appointed for study of regional culture in Mississippi under auspices of Ohio State University. Born August 30, 1897, Tippah County, Mississippi. Married, one child. Education: Blue Mountain College, B. A., 1929; University of Chicago, A. M., 1931; Ohio State University, 1933-34 and one summer. General Education Board fellowships. Varied experience as a teacher of rural schools, principal and county superintendent; president, Mississippi State College, 1934-. Member of Phi Delta Kappa. Publications: various articles in Mississippi Educational Advance.

MORTON B. KING, JR., (25). Appointed for field studies in rural sociology in a Tennessee county, under auspices of the University of Wisconsin. Born March 24, 1913, Shelbyville, Tennessee. Education: Vanderbilt University, B. A., 1934, and M. A., 1936; summer of 1934 at Vanderbilt School of Social Work; University of Wisconsin, 1936-. Wall scholarship at Vanderbilt University, two years; Vanderbilt University fellowship, University of Wisconsin fellowship, two years. Member of Phi Beta Kappa, Sigma Upsilon, and Alpha Kappa Delta.

FRED B. KNIFFEN, (38) associate professor of cultural geography, Louisiana State University: appointed for studies in the cultural geography of southern regions. Born January 18, 1900, Britton, Michigan. Married, two children. Education: Superior Teachers College, Wisconsin, 1917-18, 1919-20; University of Michigan, A. B., with high distinction, 1922; University of California, Ph. D., 1929; Southwest Laboratory of Anthropology, 1929. University fellow in geography, University of California, field work in Mexico; scholar, Southwest Laboratory of Anthropology, Santa Fe, summer of 1929. Member of Phi Beta Kappa, Sigma Xi. Assistant at University of Michigan, 1920-22; assistant professor at Louisiana State University, 1929-31, associate professor, 1931-. Publications: Articles with particular reference to regional problems in Bulletin of Geological Society of America, The Geographical Review, Louisiana Conservation Review, Annals of the Association of American Geographers, and other professional magazines.

LEROY E. LOEMKER, (37) professor of philosophy, Emory University, Georgia: appointed for research and creative writing in philosophy at Harvard University. Born December 28, 1900, Platteville, Wisconsin. Married, three children. Education: Dubuque College, A. B., 1921; Columbia University and University of Chicago, summers of 1921 and 1922; Boston University, S. T. B., 1927, and Ph. D., 1931; University of Berlin, 1927-28. Jacob Sleeper fellowship, Boston University; American German exchange scholarship; Borden P. Bowne fellowship, Boston University.

CHASE C. MOONEY, (24). Appointed for a study of agriculture in Tennessee involving a comparison and contrast of slavery and tenancy, under the auspices of Vanderbilt University. Born December 30, 1913, Davidson County, Tennessee. Education: Vanderbilt University, B. A., 1935, and M. A., 1936, 1936-. Wall scholarships at Vanderbilt University, 1932-33, 1934-35; graduate scholarship, 1935-36, teaching fellowships, 1936-38. Member Phi Beta Kappa.

DORIS M. PORTER, (30) associate state director, Farm Security Administration, Jackson, Mississippi: appointed for study of the methods of rehabilitating stranded farm populations in America and Europe. Born July 1, 1908, Citronelle, Alabama. Education: University of Alabama, A. B., 1928, M. S., 1932, certificate in social case work, 1935. Member Phi Upsilon Omicron. Teacher of home economics for eight years in high schools in Alabama; associate state director in charge of home economics and social service, Farm Security Administration, Jackson, Mississippi, 1936-.

CHARLES EUGENE SHANNON, (24). Appointed for creative work in the painting of southern types. Born June 22, 1914, Montgomery, Alabama. Education: Emory University, 1930-32; Cleveland School of Art, 1932-36. Scholarships at Cleveland School of Art for three years; upon graduation received Agnes Gund award for study in Mexico. Instructor, Montgomery Museum of Fine Arts, 1936-37. Exhibits: Cleveland Museum of Art, 1935-36, honorable mention (highest award) in figure composition, 1936; Ashtabula, Ohio, Public Library, 1936, accompanied by lecture on art appreciation; one-man show at Montgomery Museum of Fine Arts, 1937; Alabama Art League, 1937; Southern States Art League, Atlanta, 1937; Cleveland School of Art, 1938, one-man show at Seligman Galleries, New York, 1938.