

Candidate Roy E. Hyde ✓ Special Field
 Acting Head, Department of Social Science, and Rural Sociology
 Instructor in Sociology and Economics
 Plan of Work Southeastern Louisiana College, Hammond

To make a comparative study of southern white and colored farm tenure classes in Cotton Belt; (1) hills area where small farmers predominate and (2) Delta plantation area. Data to be gathered during summer of 1938; analysis and report to be made by June, 1939.

Seeking Ph. D. from Louisiana State University; admitted. May return to present position. Working with Negro student, Charles Goode Gaillion

Digest of Application

Born April, 1902, Tangipahoa Parish, Louisiana. Married, two children.

B. A. from Louisiana State Normal College, 1927. M. A. from Louisiana State University, 1932. Graduate work at Harvard University, 1935-36. Phi Kappa Phi.

Experiences: Plaquemine, Louisiana, teacher, 1924-26, $1,170. Amite, Louisiana, teacher and high school principal, 1927-30, $1,845. Southeastern Louisiana College, Hammond, instructor of sociology and economics, 1932-38, salary ranging from $1,350 to $2,250.

M. A. thesis, 1932. The Cotton Dilemma, 150 page study made at Harvard University.

Fellowships: Louisiana State University, 1930-32, $600. Institute of Race Relations, Swarthmore College, 1934, $100. Harvard University, WPA research project, $1,000. Harvard University, Social Science Research Council, 1936, $200.

References

- Mr. Robert E. Park, Fisk University.
- Mr. C. C. Zimmerman, Harvard University.
- Mr. Fred C. Frey, Louisiana State University.
- Mr. T. Lynn Smith, Louisiana State University

Budget Summary

Total amount needed	$1,974
From applicant	174
From Fund	$1,800

Committee Notes

Granted

not. Does not rate with weaker Copeland combination.

Documents submitted

- Photograph
- Exhibit material
- Transcripts
- Louisiana State University
- Harvard University

Plan of work

Digest Complete

Sent to Committee FEB 11 1938

Documents returned

