

Candidate Edwin Albert Leland, Jr. 2150 Sherman Ave. Special Field Education - New Orleans
 Fellow, Department of History, Northwestern University
 Evanston, Illinois

Plan of Work

An inquiry into the Negro, industrial, and parochial education of New Orleans since 1900 with emphasis upon the contemporary scene and upon the socio-economic implications.

Seeks Ph.D. at Tulane University, beginning September, 1938 for one full year or more. Has been admitted.

Digest of Application

Born April, 1913, New Orleans, Louisiana. Single.

A.B. from Tulane University, 1934. M.A. from Louisiana State University, 1937. Teacher Training, Tulane University, Summers, 1933-34. Phi Beta Kappa Instructor, Fortier High School and Warren Easton High School, New Orleans, Louisiana, 1934-35, 1935-37, $1000-$1500.

Master's Thesis: Organization and Administration of the Louisiana Army during the Civil War to be published in the Louisiana Historical Quarterly.

Honors Scholarship at Tulane University, 1930-34, $600 for 4 years. Fellowship, Northwestern in History, 1937-38, $800 per annum.

References

H. C. Nixon, Chairman, Dept. History, Tulane University
 Lionel Bourgeois, District Supt., New Orleans Public Schools
 W. H. Stephenson, Prof., History, Louisiana State University

Budget Summary

Total amount needed $1600
 From applicant _____
 From Fund $1600

Committee Notes

Granted

out

Documents submitted

- Photograph
- Exhibit material
- Transcripts x
- Tulane University
- Louisiana State University
- Plan of work x

Digest

complete

Sent to Committee

Documents returned

