

Candidate Henrietta Louise Herod

Special Field
Eng. Lit. and Language

Head, Dept. English & Chairman, Div. of Humanities
Louisville Municipal College for Negroes, Kentucky

Plan of Work

This study will prove the existence of a cultural relationship between Ruskin and Tolstoi; it will discuss the nature of that relationship; it will show Ruskin and Tolstoi as championing a social philosophy that was of great importance as a movement of thought at the close of the nineteenth century.

Seeks Ph.D. at University of Chicago. Has been admitted. One to two years.

Can return to present position.

Digest of Application

Born December, 1903, Paris, Kentucky. Single.

A. B. from Butler College, 1922; M. A. from Radcliffe College, 1929; Work at University of Chicago 1934-35 and summers 1936-37.

Teacher, Public School #26, Indianapolis, 1922-27, $1800; Teacher, Attucks High School, Indianapolis, 1927-28, 1929-31, $2400; now on faculty of Louisville Municipal College for Negroes, $2500.

Scholarship - General Education Board, $1250, 1934-35. During that year completed residence requirement for Ph.D. and passed Ph.D. language examinations in French and German.

References

- J. R. Hulbert, Sec'y, English Dept. U. of Chicago
- R. M. Lovett, Prof. of English, University of Chicago
- Ina C. Brown, Fellow, University of Chicago
- R. E. Clement, President, Atlanta University
- D. A. Lane, Dean, Louisville Municipal College for Negroes, Kentucky

Budget Summary

Total amount needed	$ 1595
From applicant	95
From Fund	$ 1500

Committee Notes

Granted

out? so plus we look for -

Documents submitted

- Photograph
- Exhibit material
- Transcripts
- Butler University

Plan of work

Digest

complete
Sent to Committee

Documents returned

