

April 4, 1940

Gentlemen: The Julius Rosenwald Fund has a number of applications from artists, and it becomes necessary for us to have an art jury look over their work. Their exhibits will be in the form of paintings, some sculpture, and some photographs.

At the suggestion of Mr. Henry Allen Moe of the John Simon Guggenheim Foundation (who has already communicated with you) we are having these artists ship their exhibits to your gallery. Mr. Moe will have the jury see the work on Wednesday, April 10.

I am attaching a list of the persons whom we are instructing to send material to you, and we are asking that they have it there not later than Tuesday, April 9. I am also shipping some material to your gallery.

I will be in New York next week and will stop in to see you.

Very truly yours,

GMR:MLJ
