

Candidate Priscilla Smith Robertson
Route 1, Anchorage, Kentucky

Special Field Farm tenancy and education, Journalism.

Plan of Work

First, to help my husband in his study of journalism. Second, to investigate the methods of rural education, especially in the poorest sections, and in the light of what is being done for farm tenants.

Wishes to study independently abroad (Denmark, Rumania, Great Britain, and Ireland). Study to begin summer of 1939 for duration of one year.

Digest of Application

Born May, 1910, Paris, France. Married.

A.B. from Vassar College, 1930; Phi Beta Kappa. Graduate work at Columbia University, 1933-34.

Applicant's experience has been scattered. Assistant, New York Public Library summer of 1927, $75 a mo. Catalogued Mr. H. P. Kendall's maps for exhibit at U. of North Carolina. Teacher, Ballard School, Harrod's Creek, Kentucky, 1931-33, $1,020 a year. Assistant project director, National Intercollegiate Christian Council, New York City, July 1933, $50.

Scholarships: Aid to get through Vassar, approximately $400 a year. Columbia University fellowship, 1933-34, room and board.

References

Miss Julia Allen, Dean of Women, Berea College.
Miss Helen Lockwood, Professor of English, Vassar.
Miss Elsie Clapp, editor, Progressive Education Magazine.

Budget Summary (application
Included in Cary Robertson's

Total amount needed

From applicant

From Fund

Committee Notes

Granted

out

Documents submitted

Photograph
Exhibit material
Transcripts
Vassar College
Columbia University

Plan of work

Digest

Sent to Committee 7/16 3

Documents returned