

Candidate

Cecil Fletcher Holland
City Editor, The Chattanooga News
Chattanooga, Tennessee

Special Field

Confederate Military
History

Plan of Work

A biography of General John Morgan, which will be based on recently discovered personal letters, reports, military correspondence and other manuscripts of General Morgan. This material, contradicting much that has been previously written makes possible for the first time, a complete study of his career.

Wishes to do research in private manuscripts, newspapers, at the Library of Congress and other libraries, beginning June 1, 1938 for a period of ten months. Can return to present position.

Digest of Application

Born December, 1907, Falling Water, Tennessee. Married.

Obtained A. B. from University of Chattanooga, 1929. Special course in German, University of Chattanooga, 1934-35.

Sports writer, reporter and City Editor, The Chattanooga News, 1927-1937.

Publications: "The Tenant Farmer Turns", Survey Graphic, May, 1935

References

- ✓ Mr. George Fort Milton, Editor, Chattanooga News.
- ✓ Dr. Alexander Guerry, President, University of Chattanooga
- ✓ Mr. Gilbert E. Covan, Librarian, " "
- ✓ Dr. W. B. Hesselbine, Prof. History, University of Wisconsin.

Budget Summary

Total amount needed	$2,400
From applicant	700
From Fund	$1,700
Granted

Committee Notes

out

Documents submitted

- Photograph
- Exhibit material
- Transcripts

University of Chattanooga

Plan of work

Digest

complete

Sent to Committee

Documents returned

