

Candidate Mrs. Lily Gaines Rogers

Special Field
Home Economics and Rural Sociology

Teacher of Home Economics, Dasher High School
Valdosta, Georgia

Plan of Work

To acquire more college training in the field of Home Economics in order to be more useful in the community.

Seeks B.S. at Tuskegee Institute, beginning September, 1938 for nine months.
Has been admitted. Can return to present position.

Digest of Application

Born January, 1898, Valdosta, Georgia. Widowed, one child.

Summer and extension work at Tuskegee Institute, Hampton Institute, Fort Valley N. & I School, Atlanta University and University of Georgia.

Teacher of Home Economist, Dasher High School, Valdosta, Georgia, 1925- , $75 month.

References

- A. G. Cleveland, Supt. City Schools, Valdosta, Georgia
- R. L. Cousins, Director Negro Education, Atlanta, Ga.
- Miss Elizabeth Neys, State Director of Home Economics
Teachers, Atlanta, Georgia.
- Dr. H. M. Bond, Nashville, Tennessee
- W.T.B. Williams, Vice-President, Tuskegee Institute

Budget Summary

Total amount needed	$975
From applicant	75
From Fund	$900

Committee Notes

Granted

Documents submitted

- Photograph x
- Exhibit material
- Transcripts

Plan of work x

Digest Brief

Sent to Committee

Documents returned

