Dear Mr. Haygood:

I am carrying large responsibilities in connection with the program of the Coordinator of Inter-American Affairs -- too large for my health -- so if you folks are planning to ask me on your Committee I want to give you this notice that I shall not be able to help you in 1942. I'm sorry because I have much enjoyed doing what I could for you; but I can't do it any more until my other burdens lighten a great deal.

There is no other Herschel Brickell that I know of. I don't know how good Mr. Bontemps' judgment is but certainly he ought to be able to help you to some degree. I don't yet know how I am going to get along without Mr. Brickell myself.

With all good wishes to you in your important job, I am

Sincerely yours,

Henry Allen Moe
