

Candidate Lawrence Bertell Wilson Special Field
Professor in Political Science & Economics, Political Science
Philander Smith College, Little Rock, Arkansas

Plan of Work

I plan to return to the University of Illinois to complete my work for the doctorate. It will take approximately fifteen months to complete the requirements, including the dissertation, which is entitled "The Movement for Anti-Lynching Legislation in the United States." This study, which I have already started, has been accepted by the department of political science and will be made under the direction of Prof. Clarence A. Berdahl and other members of that department.
