

Candidate Guichard Bolivar Parris

Special Field

Unemployed
522 Convent Avenue, New York City

French History and Literature

Plan of Work

A biographical study of the abbe Henri Gregoire (1750-1831) as one of the distinguished representatives of the humanitarian tradition in France, particularly as that tradition is related to the anti-slavery movement of the day.

Seeking Ph. D. Duration of study three months in United States, nine months abroad, to begin September, 1938.

Digest of Application

Born March, 1893, Guadeloupe, French West Indies. Married, three children.

A. B. from Amherst College, 1927. A. M. from Columbia University, 1932. Residence and general examination complete for Ph. D. from Columbia University. Phi Beta Kappa.

Experiences: Livingstone College, instructor in French, 1930-31, $150 a month; Lincoln University, Missouri, assistant professor of French, 1932-33, $200 a month; Atlanta University, instructor of French, 1935-36, $250 a month.

Publications: Three French Reading Texts, Atlanta University French series, 1933 (done in collaboration with Dr. Mercer Cook). Article, French Texts for Negro Schools, in Romanic Review, March, 1935.

Scholarships: three and a half years' tuition scholarship, Amherst College.

References

- Dr. Geoffrey Atkinson, Amherst College.
- Dr. Arthur Livingston, Columbia University.
- Dr. Howard W. Odum, University of North Carolina.

Budget Summary

Total amount needed	$1,756
From applicant	- -
From Fund	$1,756

Committee Notes

Granted $1,800

additional inf obtained from Mr. Shaw

Documents submitted

- Photograph
- Exhibit material
- Transcripts
- Amherst College
- Columbia University

Plan of work

Digest Complete

Sent to Committee

Documents returned

Candidate

Guthrie Bellver Parria

Special Field

French History and Literature

Organized 825 Convent Avenue, New York City

Plan of Work

A diographical study of the abbé Henri Grégoire (1750-1831) as one of the distinguished representatives of the humanistic tradition in France, particularly as that tradition is related to the anti-slavery movement of the day.

Seeking Ph. D. Duration of study three months in United States, nine months abroad, to begin September, 1938

Mrs: Good record. Best student on Atkinson

Digest of Application

sy: Is a real scholar.

Born March, 1903; Guedeloupe, French West Indies. Married, three children. A. B. from Ashurst College, 1927. A. M. from Columbia University, 1932. Residence and general examination complete for Ph. D. from Columbia University. Ph.D. State exams. Experience: Instructor in French, Ashurst College, 1930-31, (18MO a month); Instructor in French, Ashurst College, 1931-32, (24MO a month); Assistant Professor of French, Ashurst College, 1932-33, (24MO a month); Professor of French, Ashurst College, 1933-34, (24MO a month). Publications: Three French Reading Texts, Ashurst University French series, 1933 (done in collaboration with Dr. Gordon Cook); Articles, French Texts for Negro Schools, La Nouvelle Revue, March, 1933. Scholarships: three and a half years; tuition scholarship, Ashurst College.

References

Dr. Gordon Cook, Ashurst College.
Dr. Arthur Livingston, Columbia University.
Dr. Howard R. Osgood, University of North Carolina.

Budget Summary

Total amount needed $1,750
From applicant -
From Fund $1,750
Granted $1,800

Committee Notes

... ..

Digest

Completed

Sent to Committee

Documents returned

Documents submitted

Photograph x
Exhibits material
Transcripts
Ashurst College
Columbia University
Plan of work x

GUICHARD B. PARRIS

Begins work on the life of Gregoire October 1, and expects to continue it for about four months at Columbia. During that period will spend some time in the libraries at New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington. (9/18/38) 322 Convent Av. NYC

207 Boulevard Raspail, Paris, XIV (2/5/39)

FISK
UNIVERSITY