January 25, 1944

Dear Oronzio: I had a note from Frank last week saying that he thought he could serve on the Art Jury if the meeting could be held in Chicago some time around the middle of March or even later in the month. He feels that he would not be able to go to New York, so I am hoping that you and Gino will consent to come to Chicago again this year. Would you be free some time during the week of March 20 to 26? Any date that could be arranged, I think, would be all right with Frank and would be convenient for me. Would you talk with Gino and decide which day would be best for you two to come and let me know as soon as possible?

I was sorry not to see you when I was in New York in November. I had a nice talk with Mitzi and intended to call you but seemed unable to find a minute that wasn't crowded. I am looking forward to seeing you in March.

Billy is up at the University of Wisconsin now and is able to get home every week-end. I was hoping he could be in Chicago for the Art Jury meeting, but he will be leaving Wisconsin some time in the early part of March. Give Tillie my best regards. Also please say hello to Mitzi for me. I enjoyed her nice card very much. I do hope that it will be convenient for you to come to Chicago.

Cordially,

VANDI V. HAYGOOD,
