

Candidate Willa Beatrice FlayerSpecial Field FrenchInstructor of French and Latin; Registrar, Bennett College
Greensboro, North Carolina

Plan of Work

I wish to pursue advanced courses in French and to give special attention to the development of a handbook of minimum essentials for teaching French to be used in the high schools. The study is to be woven from information gathered from experience in teaching the language particularly to Negro students coming largely from high schools in North Carolina

Wishes to work for Ph.D. at the University of Wisconsin, beginning September, 1938 for the period of two years. Can return to present position at Bennett College.
