

Candidate James Welch Patton

Special Field History

Professor of History, Converse College,
Spartanburg, South Carolina

Plan of Work

Completion of research on projected History of the Republican Party in South Carolina since 1876.

One year. Can return to present position.

Digest of Application

Born September, 1900, Rutherford County, Tennessee. Married, one child.

A. B. Vanderbilt University, 1924. M. A. University of North Carolina, 1925. Ph.D. University of North Carolina, 1929. Vanderbilt University Law School, 1920-21.

Teaching Fellowship, University of North Carolina, 1924-25, $500.

Professor of History, Georgia State Women's College, 1925-27, $2000; instructor in history, University of North Carolina, 1927-29, $1000; associate professor of history, The Citadel, 1929-30, $2500; assistant professor of history, Wittenberg College, 1930-31, $2500; professor of history, Converse College, 1931 - , $2700.

For publications see attached.

References

- Dr. E. M. Gwathmey, Converse College
- Dr. J. G. deR. Hamilton, U. of North Carolina
- Dr. F. M. Green, University of North Carolina
- Dr. R. B. Vance, University of North Carolina
- Dr. D. D. Wallace, Wofford College, Spartanburg
- Dr. F. B. Simkins, State Teachers College

Budget Summary

Total amount needed	$2725
From applicant	225
From Fund	$2500

Committee Notes

Granted

Documents submitted

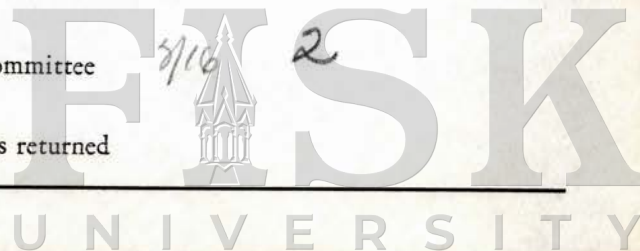

- Photograph
- Exhibit material
- Transcripts
 - Vanderbilt University
 - University of North Carolina

Plan of work

Digest

Sent to Committee 5/10 2

Documents returned

John Welch Patton - Publications

Unionism and Reconstruction in Tennessee. University of North Carolina Press, 1934. Pp. 287.

The Women of the Confederacy. (Jointly with Francis B. Simkins) Garrett and Massie, Richmond, 1936. Pp. 306.

The Minutes of the Greenville Ladies' Association in Aid of the Volunteers of the Confederate Army. Edited by James W. Patton. Historical papers of the Trinity College Historical Society, Series XXI. Duke University Press. 1937. Pp. 118.

"The Senatorial Career of William G. Brownlow," Tennessee Historical Magazine, April, 1931. Pp. 153-164.

"The Progress of Emancipation in Tennessee," Journal of Negro History, January, 1932. Pp. 67-102.

"The Tennessee Valley as Seen by a British Traveler in 1837," Tennessee Historical Magazine, December, 1933. Pp. 45-58.

"John Belton O'Neall," Proceedings of the South Carolina Historical Association, 1934. Pp. 5-14.

"The Work of Southern Women Among the Sick and Wounded of the Confederate Armies," (Jointly with Francis B. Simkins). Journal of Southern History, November, 1935. Pp. 475-496.

"Tennessee's Attitude Toward the Impeachment and Trial of Andrew Johnson," East Tennessee Historical Society Publications, 1937. Pp. 65-76.

"The Work of Soldiers' Aid Societies in South Carolina During the Civil War," Proceedings of the South Carolina Historical Association, 1937. pp. 3-12.

Sketches of Andrew Gordon Magrath, Arthur Middleton Manigault, William Jasper, John Belton O'Neall, Abraham Nott, and David Rogerson Williams, in Dictionary of American Biography. Edited by Allen Johnson and Dumas Malone. Charles Scribner's Sons. 1928-36.

Sketches for Dictionary of American History. Edited by James Truslow Adams. (In preparation). Charles Scribner's Sons.

Book reviews in Journal of Southern History; North Carolina Historical Review; Tennessee Historical Magazine; Social Science.