Journalism

This is one of the men stimulated by Kazin, Swearingen et al at Tulane.
He has been slow in finding himself (which is natural when a Louisiana Tulane boy gets stimulated by such a man as Kazin) Journalism is a strong instrument for social reform. This chap now knows what he wants to do, is fully well assured of a platform for doing it, will get much help from the North Carolina people in studying + analyzing significant regional problems.
