

Candidate Augusta Victoria Jackson

Special Field

1477 Pacific Street
Brooklyn, New York

Negro life and history

Plan of Work

A study and collection of the group of writings by Negro slave authors known as the "slave narratives." This will involve research to determine the authenticity of the documents, their value and place in national history, and general editing and criticism for the publication of a source book based on this material.

Duration of study one year to begin as soon as possible. Research to be carried on independently.

Digest of Application

Born February, 1915, Brooklyn, New York. Single.

B. A. from Brooklyn College, New York, 1934. M. A. from Atlanta University, 1936.

Experiences: Miles Memorial College, Birmingham, teacher of English, 1936-37, $900.

Research: A critical study of Negro literature with a survey of the field from 1890 to 1930, and an interpretation and analysis of the "Negro renaissance" from 1922 to 1929.

Fellowships: Brooklyn College, 1930-34, $400. Atlanta University, 1934-36, $500.

References

Mr. W. S. Braithwaite, Atlanta University.
Miss Eora Neale Hurston, c/o Mr. James Hubert,
104-85 135th Street, Jamaica, Long Island.
Mr. Alain Locke, Howard University.

Budget Summary

Total amount needed $1,430
From applicant - -
From Fund $1,430

Committee Notes

Granted

(out)

Documents submitted

Photograph
Exhibit material
Transcripts
Brooklyn College
Atlanta University
Plan of work

Digest

Complete

Sent to Committee

Documents returned

