SYBIL MARIE JONES

Student, University of Chicago
Phoenix House

Political Science

This was a good scholarship - and yet had no evidence of distinction and maturity that would justify a fellowship. Very much better from Leonard White, her only graduate reference

Plan of Work

To make a survey of the extent of minority group participation in labor unions, particularly in the South; checking the amount of initiative taken by these organizations to secure and insure certain fundamental rights; tabulating results in various communities and relating them to the general over-all picture of labor and civil rights; checking opinion of employees and employers - white and Negro - on part unions are playing.

Requests grant for one year beginning September, 1945. Wishes to work toward Ph.D. at the University of Chicago under the supervision of Professor Kerwin.
