

Fellowship
Com

February 3, 1948

Dear Mr. Moon: Last year you were good enough to serve on our literary jury, and I am writing now to ask if we may again count on you this year. As you know, this is the last year that we are in operation, and I give you my solemn promise that we won't bother you after this.

Arna will be here for the preliminary Fellowship Committee meeting on March 13-14. Maybe the two preceding days would be a good time for the literary jury's meeting. However, we will have it at your convenience, since Arna says "let me know the final decision, and I'll arrange to be on hand." By the way, if you think it more convenient for Arna to come to New York, I suppose that could be arranged too, only I'd have to ship the manuscripts etc. and that would probably be quite a bother.

Will you let me hear as soon as you can, and I will then notify the applicants to send on their manuscripts, etc.

Sincerely yours,

H. R.
