

ARNOLD JOHN STAFFORD

(24)

Tutor in English
University of Texas

English Language and Literature

It seems to me that the Vanderbilt Aparnaism is a trivial topic. Certainly it is too recent to appraise.

Paul Foreman endorses the view
but downes the project
Other letters good, but not good enough to put in my list

Name Arnold John Stafford Field: English
 Tutor in English Language and
 University of Texas, Austin, Texas Literature

Plan of Work

An investigation of the Agrarian Movement in the South (c. 1930-1940) with the purpose of clarifying the principles of the movement by placing it in its historical tradition and by showing what effect it has had on popular thought and actual social program.

Wishes to work for Ph. D. at the University of Texas under Dr. Theodore Hornberger. Has been admitted. Requests grant for one year beginning September 1942. May return to present position. Wishes to teach English and American literature in a Southern college.

Personal Data Born Windermere, Florida, August 1917. Age: 24
 Married. 3-A

Undergraduate Work Maryville College, B. A. 1938 (cum laude)

Graduate Work Vanderbilt University, M. A. 1939.
 University of Texas, summer 1941 to present.

Experience Instructor, University of Mississippi, 1939-41, $1200-1400; tutor, University of Texas, 1941- , $700.

Accomplishments Master's Thesis: "Henry David Thoreau's social criticism"
 Scholarship in English, Vanderbilt University, 1938-39, $300.
 Will apply for renewal of tutorship.

References

Dr. E. R. Hunter, Maryville College
 Dr. W. C. Curry, Vanderbilt University
 Dr. A. B. Butts, University of Mississippi
 Dr. Paul Foreman, University of Mississippi
 Mr. Robert C. Cotner, University of Texas
 Dr. Theodore Hornberger, University of Texas

Budget Summary

Total Amount Needed	$1,580
From Applicant	---
From Fund	$1,580

Sent to Committee

gr 15 2/20

AMOUNT GRANTED