

Candidate Anthony Vincent Shea, Jr. Special Field
near Newbrook Hills, Charlottesville, Va.
 Research Economist and Statistician
 Bureau of Public Administration, Charlottesville, Va.

Plan of Work

A Study of Administrative Planning in Modern Government With Particular Reference to Fiscal Programming and Control.

Seeks Ph.D. at University of Chicago, working under Professors Merriam, Ogburn, Leland, Dimock and White. Not yet admitted. About fourteen months. Can return to present position.

Digest of Application

Born September, 1911, Richmond, Virginia.

B. S. University of Virginia, 1934. M. S. University of Virginia, 1935.

Clerical work, DePont Cellphane Company, Richmond, 1930-31, $125 per month; reference librarian, University of Virginia, 1935-36, $90 per month; and research assistant, Virginia Commission on County Government, 1935-36, $125 per month; economist and statistician, Bureau of Public Administration, 1936 - , $167 per month.

Undergraduate scholarship, 1931-34, $100 per year; service scholarship, University of Virginia, 1935-36, $275.

Has written "Consolidation of County Government in Virginia," Report of the Virginia Commission on County Government, 1936; "State-Administered Locally-Shared Taxes" (with Raymond Uhl) in Municipal Yearbook, 1936; "The Financial Strength of Virginia," "A Merit System for Virginia," University of Virginia News Letter, Nov. 1, 1934, and March 1, 1936.

References

Dr. Rowland Egger, Bureau of Public Administration
 Dr. Wilson Gee, Institute for Research in Social Sciences, Charlottesville, Va. no good as ref
 Dr. G. W. Spicer, Chairman, Dept. of Political Science
 Colonel LeRoy Hodges, State Comptroller, Richmond

Budget Summary

Total amount needed	$ 1529
From applicant	---
From Fund	$ 1529

Committee Notes

Granted

out

Documents submitted

Photograph
 Exhibit material
 Transcripts

University of Virginia

Plan of work

Digest

Sent to Committee

Documents returned