

Name Thomas Blanchard Worsley Field: Economics
 Graduate Student and Assistant in Economics
 University of Virginia, Charlottesville

Plan of Work
 A thorough history and critical analysis of the financial system of Georgia, with recommendations as to alterations.

Wishes to secure Ph.D. at University of Virginia, under Dr. Tipton R. Snavelly, with aid of Deans R. P. Brooks of University of Georgia and Edgar H. Johnson of Emory University. Probable duration of study nine months, beginning September, 1940.

Personal Data Born Columbus, Georgia, November, 1911. Single. Age: 28

Undergraduate Work University of Virginia, B. S., 1933.

Graduate Work University of Virginia, M. S. in Economics, 1934.
 Study of economic institutions and conditions in Europe, summer of 1933.

Experience Senior field investigator, U. S. Treasury Credit Survey, 5 weeks, Jan. & Feb., 1935, $13 per day; junior economist, Federal Trade Commission, Washington, D. C., Mar. 1935 - July, 1936, $2000; instructor in economics, University of Georgia, 1936-37, $1500; assistant professor of Economics, University of Richmond, 1937-38, $1800.

Accomplishments Master's thesis: Out of the Cotton Quandary.
 Wrote weekly newspaper column entitled "Southern Affairs" for three Georgia weekly papers while an instructor at University of Georgia.

Two undergraduate fellowships, $100 and $200, and three graduate, total of $1000, at University of Virginia

References

- T. R. Snavelly, Chairman, Dept. of Economics, University of Virginia
- R. P. Brooks, Dean, School of Commerce, University of Georgia
- Edgar H. Johnson, Dean, Dept. Economics, Emory University
- Josephine Wilkins, Chairman, Georgia Fact Finding Committee
- Roland B. Daniel, Retired Superintendent of Public Schools, Columbus, Georgia

Budget Summary

Total Amount Needed	$1200.00
From Applicant	---
From Fund	$1200.00

AMOUNT GRANTED

Plan of Work  Photograph
 Transcripts  Exhibit Material
 University of Virginia

Sent to Committee

3/13 18

