Dear Mr. Easterby: We are preparing a full report for our trustees on persons who have held fellowships, and would like to have up-to-date information. It will be of great service to us if you will give the information called for below, and return the sheet to us at once. In addition to these bare facts we should be glad to know of anything interesting that has happened to you, or that you have accomplished either during your tenure of fellowship or since your return to your post. Our trustees have a continuing interest in the Fellows and we like to keep them informed.

GMR:MLU

Very truly yours,
George M. Reynolds

Mr. J. H. Easterby
College of Charleston
Charleston, South Carolina

Present address: College of Charleston, Charleston, S.C.

Present position: Professor of History and Director of the College Library

Has there been any change in your rank, position, or salary since the completion of your fellowship? If so, please indicate. No.

Publications since you were awarded the fellowship. Please give publisher.

Nothing except a review in the American Historical Review.

Additional information: I was able to complete, during the term of my fellowship, all requirements for the doctorate in History at the University of Chicago with the exception of the dissertation which should be finished within the next six months. Letter follows. A chapter of the dissertation will be read at the meeting of the Southern Historical Association next month.

Present status of work toward degree: See above.
