

Name Charline Elise Thomas Field: Biology
Starkville, Mississippi

Plan of Work

Since all of the course work for my doctorate has been finished and my preliminary examinations set for this winter quarter, my plans for the next year will be limited to my thesis research. This research will be composed of studies on the rapidly growing problem of parasitic diseases in southern livestock.

Seeks Ph.D. at Iowa State College, under Dr. E. R. Becker. Probable duration of study one year beginning as soon as possible.
