October 12, 1939

Dear Doctor Whitfield: I am very grateful ~~to you for your~~ to you for your letter of October 11th. I will pay your expenses to Chicago and return if you will be kind enough to come in on Tuesday, October 17th and let us determine the final details in this matter. I regret that I am leaving town tonight and cannot see you on either Saturday or Sunday for a weekend visit. If you are able to come in on Tuesday, you should reach the office here no later than 12 o'clock noon.

In case you cannot make this Tuesday visit, let me know whether you could reach Tuskegee by Saturday, October 21st if I give you a final word on the 17th. If the 21st is an impossible date, then let me know the earliest date at which you could go to Tuskegee.

Very truly yours,

M. O. BOUSFIELD
