

Candidate William Wallace Dowdy ✓ Special Field Zoology
 Head of Department of Biology, Lincoln University
 Jefferson City, Missouri

Plan of Work

The role of free and bound water in insect tissues and its relation to insect survival during hibernation.

Wishes to work for Ph. D. at University of Pennsylvania or Western Reserve University, for one year, beginning in the fall of 1938.

Digest of Application

Born October, 1895, Eastover, South Carolina. Married.

A. B. from Benedict College, 1918. A. B. from University of Iowa, 1925. Cornell University, M. S., 1928 (GEB fellowship, $1500), 1931-32.

Instructor, Benedict College, 1919-1922, $800 a year. Professor, Shaw University, 1923-27, $1200 a year. Professor, Fisk University, summer 1928, $300. Professor, Langston University, Langston, Oklahoma, 1929, $175 a month. Professor at Lincoln University since 1929, $3000 a year. Will return to present position.

Member of Missouri Academy of Science, St. Louis Academy of Science. Research on "The Hibernation of Certain Arthropod Fauna of the Soil."

Applied last year.

References

Budget Summary

✓ Prof. L. Hasegan, University of Missouri	Total amount needed	$2,000
✓ Prof. R. A. Gortner, University of Minnesota Farm	From applicant	0
✓ Prof. A. C. Burrill, Curator, Missouri State Museum	From Fund	$2,000

Committee Notes

Granted

Documents submitted

Photograph x
 Exhibit material
 Transcripts x
 University of Iowa
 Cornell University

Plan of work x

Digest

Sent to Committee FEB 8 1938

Documents returned

