Dear George:

I guess the reference means that Mr. Walrond flopped pretty badly on his Guggenheim. If that's what he means the guy is right -- too right. Walrond, so far as I know, has hardly published anything for twelve years nor has he so far as I know done anything else. I couldn't vote for Mr. Walrond. He is no longer in my view what he once was: a man of promise.

Will you please tell me how the application of Dr. Robert P. Walton looks to you? I am much interested with I think good reason, so please keep him alive until I get out.

Sincerely yours,

Henry Allen Moe
