

Name Mooney, Chase C.

(1913)

Negro White Southerner

Position Teaching Fellow, Vanderbilt University

Special Field Group Southern HistoryCollege Vanderbilt University, B. A., 1935, and M. A., 1936, 1936-University Vanderbilt University, Ph. D., June, 1939.

Plan of Work:

Study of agriculture in Tennessee involving a comparison and contrast of slavery and tenancy: the prevailing ante bellum and post bellum systems. Working toward Ph. D. Will do research, primarily field work in contrast to library work. In absentia connection with Vanderbilt, working under Dr. Frank Owsley. 18 to 24 months.

Action of Fellowship Committee:

Granted $1,500.

Wall scholarships at Vanderbilt University, 1932-33, 1934-35; graduate scholarship 1935-36, teaching fellowships 1936-38. Member Phi Beta Kappa.

Received Ph. D. from Vanderbilt University in June of 1939. Study deals only with slavery.

1810 N. Oakland Arlington, Virginia

FISK

UNIVERSITY

Mooney, Chase C.

PROFESSIONAL CAREER

Accepted position in fall of 1939 as head of the Department and Professor of History, Political Science, and Economics at Brenau College, Gainesville, Georgia. 9/25/39

Nothing to add. 9/25/40

Received one of the Social Science Research Council's southern grants-in-aid for a continuation of his study of the institution of slavery in Tennessee during 1941-42.

1944: Senior Historian, Army Air Forces Historical Division since December, 1942. The Army Air Forces Historical program was one of the earliest under way and now has complete coverage in the United States and all theatres of operations. Mooney is engaged in the administrative, as opposed to operational, history portion, and is chief of the Legislative and Administrative Procedures section.

award

CHASE CURRAN MOONEY

(24)

Teaching Fellow, Vanderbilt Univ.

Southern History

Young - But since he is in full flight maybe we'll see him through right now
Clearly one of the brilliant younger scholars of the South
And he has stamina and the stability of home chores &
hard work as well as brilliance

A single

FISK
UNIVERSITY

Candidate Chase Curran Mooney

Special Field

Teaching Fellow, Vanderbilt University
Nashville, Tennessee

Box 238

Southern History

Plan of Work

A study of agriculture in Tennessee involving a comparison and contrast of slavery and tenancy: the prevailing ante-bellum and post-bellum systems.

Wishes to work for Ph.D. and retain "in absentia" connections with Vanderbilt. Research, primarily field work in contrast to library work under the supervision of Dr. Frank L. Owsley, beginning June, 1938, for 18 to 24 months.

Digest of Application

- Born December, 1913, Davidson County, Tennessee. Single.

A.B., 1935 and M.A., 1936 from Vanderbilt University. All requirements for Ph.D. except dissertation will be completed in June, 1938.

Teaching Fellow, 1936-1937, 1937-1938, $500-$800, Vanderbilt University.

Phi Beta Kappa

Wall Scholarships: 1932-33, 1934-35, $300 a year. Graduate Scholarship, 1935-36, $300.

Has applied to the Social Science Research Council for a pre-doctoral grant

References

Budget Summary

Dr. Frank L. Owsley, Professor History, Vanderbilt

Total amount needed $2100

Dr. William C. Biakley, Professor " , "

From applicant 600

Dr. Donna F. Fleming, Assoc. Prof. Political Science, Vanderbilt

From Fund $1500

Committee Notes

Granted

$1,500

yes - but have him go thru Soc. Res. Council

Documents submitted

Photograph x

Exhibit material

Transcripts x

Vanderbilt University

Vanderbilt " (M.A.)

Plan of work x

Digest Complete

Sent to Committee

Documents returned

