Economics

Sounds like excellent man working on timely topic of taxation (in Tennessee) I'd like him to get some experience outside the South where he has always lived + worked.
Also I'd rather double the grant if he would work 12 months instead of the 6 months planned now
Because of these questions I put a min

Name James Edward ThorogoodField: EconomicsAssistant professor of economics, University of the South Sewanee, TennesseePlan of Work

To do a history of taxation in the state of Tennessee, with emphasis upon such history during the past fifty years; this field has been almost completely neglected during the past twenty-five years. Completion of the work will require several months spent at the state capital, Nashville, as well as visits to Knoxville and other places.

Requests grant for one year beginning May 1. Will return to present position. Wishes to work toward Ph.D. at the University of Texas under the supervision of Professor E. T. Miller and Professor C. E. Ayres.
