

Fellowship
com.

April 9, 1947

Dear Mr. Still: This morning we sent to you, by Railway Express, the manuscript scores submitted by the following candidates: Ulysses Kay, Irwin Swack and George T. Walker. I am also enclosing copies of their plans of work.

I will place your letter of March 14 in Mr. Kay's folder in order to have it on hand at the May meeting of the Committee, but I would appreciate it if you would recapitulate in the general description of all of the composition candidates.

The whole fellowship future seems to be rather uncertain, so I think that it would be best if Mr. Kay were given a grant this year while we still have a functioning program.

Thanks as always for your continued help.

Sincerely yours,
WILLIAM C. HAYGOOD
