

Name Armistead Scott Pride Field: Journalism

Investigator and Director of Negro Newspaper Microfilming Project
American Council of Learned Societies, Washington, D. C.

(On leave from School of Journalism, Lincoln University, Mo.)

Plan of Work To make an historical and technical description of Negro newspapers 1827-1947, including union list of these organs, indexes, register of file and microfilm depositories; and to make a content analysis of a representative Negro newspaper of extended existence.

Requests grant for one year beginning in September 1947 and wishes to study under Dr. Melville J. Herskovits and Dean Kenneth Olson at Northwestern University for the Ph. D. degree. Will return to permanent position of Director of Lincoln University School of Journalism.

Applied 1940

Personal Data Born District of Columbia, May 1906
Married, one dependent

Age: 41
Draft Status: Honorably discharged

Undergraduate Work University of Michigan, A.B., 1927

Graduate Work University of Chicago, M.A., 1932
University of Michigan, 1934-35
Northwestern University, M.S.J., 1942

Experience See attached sheet.

Accomplishments American Assn. of University Professors; American Assn. of Teachers of Journalism.

Research: Negro newspaper research being conducted for Committee on Negro Studies of ACLS (see attached Plan of Work for summary of current procedures)

Publications: "The Attitude Toward the Metaphor in England: 1660-1740" THE QUARTERLY JOURNAL (Fla. A. & M. College), April and July 1934; presently in process JOURNALISM QUARTERLY has in hand an article on Negro newspaper microfilming project.

Fellowship: To direct Negro Newspaper Microfilming Project for Committee on Negro Studies of ACLS, June 1946-47, $4,000.

References

Curtis D. MacDougall, School of Journalism, Northwestern University

D. H. Daugherty, American Council of Learned Societies, Washington, D. C.

Melville J. Herskovits, Department of Anthropology, Northwestern University

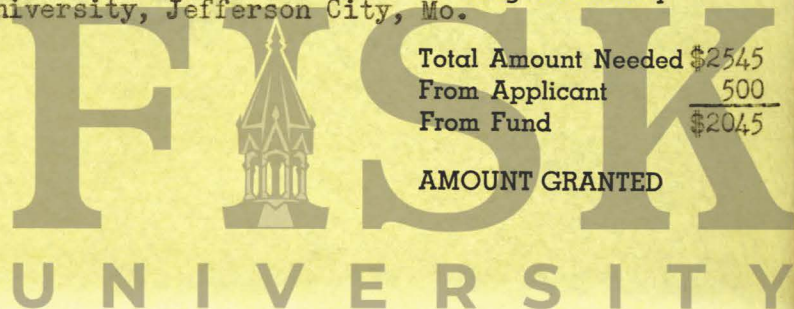

Kenneth Olson, Dean, School of Journalism, Northwestern University

Sherman D. Scruggs, President, Lincoln University, Jefferson City, Mo.

Budget Summary

Total Amount Needed	$2545
From Applicant	500
From Fund	$2045

Sent to Committee

AMOUNT GRANTED