

Name William Francis Lockwood Field: Art
Education
Director of Art Education
Louisiana State University

Plan of Work

To organize a comprehensive program in the South to encourage and develop the innate creative abilities of the rural white population and of the Negroes, where these abilities would normally become a part of their everyday life.

Wishes to work for Ph. D. degree at George Peabody College under Dr. J. J. Ray. Has been invited to attend. Asks grant for one year beginning in September, 1942. Total duration of project at least ten years. Will return to present position.

Personal Data Born St. Louis, Missouri, August, 1906. Age: 35
Married, three children

Undergraduate Work Crane Junior College, 1929-30, University of Illinois, 1930-31.
University of Florida, B. A., 1937

Graduate Work University of Florida, M. A., 1939
Teachers College, Columbia University, 1939-40

Experience Art instructor, University of Florida Laboratory School, 1935-39
$1,600; art education instructor, University of Florida, 1936-39
summer sessions of those years) $600; art education director, Louisiana State University, 1940 -, $2,700.

Accomplishments Books: Improving Art Instruction in Louisiana, 1941,
L. S. U. Bookstore
Improvement of Instruction in the Creative and Recreative Arts, 1940, L. S. U.

Fellowships: GEB, 1939-40, Columbia University, $3,000; University of Florida teaching fellowship, 1935-36, $400.

Is also applying for graduate fellowship at George Peabody College

References

Dr. Ray Faulkner, Teachers College, Columbia University
Dr. Ralph L. Wickiser, Louisiana State University
Dr. Marion Smith, Louisiana State University
Dr. W. H. Stephenson, Louisiana State University
Dr. John J. Tigert, University of Florida

Budget Summary

Total Amount Needed	$ 2,240
From Applicant	-
From Fund	$ 2,240*

*Deductible would be Peabody College fellowship, if granted.

Sent to Committee

63 3/11

AMOUNT GRANTED

